CAUGHT ON THE FLY.

Jake Beckley is pushing Josh Clarke hard for hitting honors in the American Association.

Comstock has subscribed $5 to the "Eng" Holiday fund, Harry Pulliam $10, and Aaron Stern $20.

Pitcher Up has done fine work for Columbus, landing ten games running. It looks as if Cincinnati had landed a fine pitcher in him.

It looks as if the baseball field would be an annual affair, but hereafter it will be held at such a date that all players can compete.

Jack Egan hints that he will not umpire in the American Association next year. A story comes from Cleveland that Ban Johnson may ask him to officiate in his league in 1908.

Perry Lipe, the third baseman of the Merion (Pa.) club, who is to join Atlanta next season, has made a most remarkable record, playing in five seasons without losing an inning of play.

Capt. Bob Unglaub is not with the Pilgrims this season. He left the club at Philadelphia, to go to the bedside of his young daughter, who is seriously ill. During Unglaub's absence Grimsaw will play first base.

Hodges, the Holyoke pitcher, will join the Nationals this week. His club won the championship in the Connecticut League, and after a rest of about ten days he will be given an opportunity to show how he can perform in the majors.

For the first time since the coming of the American League, New York is going to have a baseball famine lasting three days. No game is scheduled for the 16th and Monday, Tuesday, or Wednesday. Both the Giants and Highlanders will be away from home.

It is claimed that the Athletics will break all baseball attendance records this season, both at home and as a drawing card abroad, by many thousands. Already they are ahead of the figures of all other clubs in past years, and they have three weeks more to play.

Catcher Speer, of the Browns, was spiked by "Jiggs" Donohue in a close play at first Thursday, and had to retire. Two of his fingers were cut. Doc White showed he was something more than a dentist by taking the trainer's kit and binding up Speer's hand in professional style.

"I think that young Johnson is the most promising pitcher I have seen break into fast company during my baseball career," said Jim McGuire, the Boston manager last night. "The big fellow has everything, including good control, and unless he meets with some accident I think he will develop into one of the greatest pitchers the game has ever seen."

If Columbus wins the Association pennant, the players will not forget to give Louis Durham, the eccentric Louisville twirler, whom Pittsburgh tried to draft, his share of the glory. When the Champs moved in Louisville, Durham, who has some grievance, real or fancied, against the members of the Toledo team, promised to take two games from them. He did so Wednesday and Thursday, and to all appearances put Toledo on to the running for the pennant—Pittsburgh Sun.

TWO GAMES WITH BOSTON

Nationals Will Open Series with Pilgrims at National Park To-day.

Cantillon Believes that Lanford is a Promising Pitcher, so Youngster Will Be Retained.

The Nationals returned from New York about noon yesterday, and will open the Boston series this afternoon with a double-header. First game at 2 o'clock.

Cantillon's principal task at present is to whip the club into shape for a grueling series of games with the Western teams, but he is anxious to at least break even with Boston, so Charles Smith and Tom Hughes will do the pitching to-day. Jim McGuire will work his Lynn record.

Stoelke, in the first game, while Morgan may perform in the closing out.

Although it appeared by the accounts as though Lanford, the youngster from New York, showed up poorly in the New York game Saturday, Cantillon thinks that Lanford is one of the most promising members of the local staff, so instead of sending him back to the minors, the manager will give the Southerner a couple of more chances to show his worth before the end of the season.

Following the suggestion made by The Herald several weeks ago, Cantillon has decided to have a special room built for amateurs who use the park when the Nationals are not at home. The regular clubhouse will not be ready until Thursday or Friday, but as soon as that work is finished the expenses will commence to build a room for the amateurs under the grandstand.

LOCAL CRICKETERS WIN.

Down the Sons of St. George Team, of Baltimore.

The Washington Cricket Club defeated the Sons of St. George team, of Baltimore, yesterday afternoon in both innings by a "comfy" margin. The game, however, was declared on the score of the first inning, 38 to 27.

The brilliant bowling of Davis and Brenner and the batting of Dr. Cannon Sousa, Lake, and Pigott were the features.

Snappy fielding by both teams kept the score down in both innings, but in the second inning the locals got a batting streak, and piled up 68 runs, while the Orioles could only amass 54.

A large crowd was present, and frequently applauded the many brilliant plays. The last scheduled game of the season will be played on the Orioles' grounds at Colgate Creek, September 29.

The Washington Cricket Club has won two games from the Sons of St. George team, while the latter team has won three games. In event of the locals equaling the games won, the management will endeavor to have a deciding game played on the White Lot in October. The score:
